ABOUT OUR EDUCATIONAL TOURS

Our American Sign Language Tour is specifically designed for ASL and Interpreter Training Programs for any high school and post-secondary program (colleges, community colleges, universities).

This thematic tour is a wonderful opportunity for ASL and ITP teachers to bring their students outside of the classroom and to new places, where they will be able to expand their horizons by interacting with Hands On Travel's guides and managers in ASL in addition to interacting with local deaf people in their own sign language, learning about deaf culture and history in different countries, and finding new ways to communicate and get immersed into ASL and sign language in general.

In 2013, our pilot ASL Tour was met with such positive reviews, as the ITP and ASL students on the tour remarked on how much their sign language skills improved in such a short time. They got to practice their sign language from morning to night every day and learn & practice ASL in a new atmosphere.

We are motivated to offer memorable experiences to any ASL and ITP program and will be working closely with administrators and/or teachers throughout the process to ensure a smooth outcome. Our consultation services include assistance with the administrative tasks that are required to make the trip a success - such as fundraising, insurance, general liability-legal issues, necessary policies/rules for dealing with students abroad, and dealing with administration/parents.

Past ASL Programs using our ASL Tours:

Central Michigan University, Michigan (recurring client)
Rochester Institute of Technology, New York (recurring client)
William Woods University, Missouri
Tulsa Community College, Oklahoma
Medina Valley ISD, Texas (recurring client)
Maumee Valley Country Day School

Testimonials:

"Thank you for a life changing experience. We are truly lucky to have had you as a guide. We have been on a few guided tours before with other companies and we can honestly say this has been the best, both the tours and the culture. You made it so carefree for us all and we were able to experience these amazing cities just as locals would. We will be forever grateful to you for this amazing adventure."

Medina Valley Independent School District

"The experiences I gained while with this group have changed my heart as well as the course of my future. I was completely captivated each day while watching you share historical information in beautiful ASL. Making this trip open to hearing students has done more than you know. I am deeply thankful."

Laura Hawkins, student, William Woods University

"CSD Fremont is proud of our longstanding relationship with Hands On Travel. CSD Fremont will never go back to touring with a company that does not cater directly to Deaf students. HOT is a top-notch company, with better, quicker, and deeper travel experiences in all regions HOT visits."
